Happy Holidays!

I hope you are all well this holiday season. I'm looking forward to great food, and family. Especially eating a lot of dessert with Christa. The snow will soon start to fall, and I'll make a trip up to camp. It is beautiful when Wiley Pond freezes over, and there is snow covering the rooftops and center camp. Remember to light your candle and think about all of the friends you have made, and all the memories that you shared. I'll be thinking of what a fantastic group of people with which I had the privilege of sharing my first summer as director. We did have a great time, didn't we? Well, there are more memories and laughter to come. See you then!

Love, Meghan
