

Meghan's Message

Happy Holidays Everyone!

I hope this message is finding you happy and warm. I am very excited for the upcoming holidays, and a week of vacation and rest. I hope that you will all take the time to light your candles in the next few weeks, and think about all of the friends that you made and the experiences that you had. I will think of the wonderful staff that I had the opportunity to work with last summer, and the fun I have seeing the true camp spirit that all of you show each day. The wonderful thing about lighting my candle is knowing that I will be back in June to create new memories that I will treasure forever. I can't wait to see all of you when the snow melts.

Lots of love, Meghan

Hi Girls! Hope you are all enjoying your school year thus far. I know its a hard transition at first from camp life back to home life, but just think of school as the time to fill up between each summer. Make sure to light your candles and think of all the good times at camp. Happy Holidays!

Kristen Houpt

Happy Holidays and Happy New Year Everyone!! I hope the start of the winter season finds you happy and hopeful! This is always one of my favorite times of year because once the winter solstice hits, the days start getting longer and I start thinking about spending the longest days at camp. You know the ones I'm talking about - when evening program ends and it's ok if you forgot your flashlight because it's still light out... I can't wait! Until then, enjoy the holidays, have a wonderful new year and I look forward to seeing you when the days are long! Love, Liz

A big hello to everyone from across the pond, I hope you are all enjoying the holidays. Pretty much just keeping myself busy here until summer returns again and back at good old camp. It really is amazing how much you miss it when your not there. Think it might start to snow here soon which is always exciting. Take care and will see you next year.

Becca Curran

Happy Holidays Camp Foss! Hope that all of you are having a good time! Don't forget to light your candles and think of all the good times you had at camp. I will be lighting my candle while in England. Just think, we are half way to Camp Foss 2008. See you all in the summer!

Lyndsey Sullivan

Hi Ladies, I hope everyone is enjoying winter so far! We have gotten over a foot of snow in Vermont! I have been super busy with school and I've been thinking about some cool new programs for next summer! It's hard to remember we were once wearing flip flops with all this snow around! I hope everyone enjoys the holidays! Merry Christmas and Happy New Year Love, Amanda
